The worksheet features six groups of anthropomorphic fruits and vegetables. On the left, there are: 1) A group of orange carrots, a round orange, and a pear. 2) A group of purple grapes, a purple eggplant, and a purple onion. 3) A group of yellow corn, a yellow banana, and a yellow lemon. 4) A single blueberry. 5) A group of white rice, a white onion, and a white coconut. 6) A group of red apples and red radishes. On the right, there are: 1) A group of green broccoli, a green avocado, and a green pea. 2) A group of green leafy vegetables. 3) A group of red tomatoes and red radishes. Lines connect the color labels to the food groups: Green to Broccoli, White to Rice, Yellow to Corn, Purple to Onions, Orange to Carrots, and Red to Apples.
